$8. CHERAW REPRINTS

Collectors are cautioned that likenesses of the $8 note of the Merchants' Bank of South Carolina at Cheraw, illustrated in the September issue of the Flying Eagle, may be spurious.

Lt. Austin Sheheen, Jr., a collector in Charleston Heights, S. C. writes that "the particular bill shown has been reprinted in the last year or so by a collector who owns the plates", who has been selling them to the unsuspecting as genuine items.

The note illustrated, apparently in this category, was obtained by the author from a reliable U.S. dealer, who apparently purchased it in good faith after it had passed through several hands.

Lt. Sheheen writes that the Bank had notes of denominations $6, $7, $8 and $9, though none were issued. The $8 original is "a medium buff colored paper". The reprint is white.

"The authentic notes, though unsigned, undated and never issued, are quite scarce and desirable", he reports.

The situation reminds one of the "altered 14-D Lincolns", which may or may not have begun in good faith but a menace after passing through a number of hands.

THE FROSTED-GEM PROOFS

Although Frosted Heads are currently popular they were struck many years ago. The recent interest in these proofs prompted the writer to acquire a set for inspection. Several letters were sent to the Philadelphia Mint, The Royal Canadian Mint and collectors for their reports and comment as to the manufacturing of proof sets. After considerable study and research the startling discovery was apparent, the writer is of the opinion that these "frosted coins" should be classified as GEMS. From the reports received we believe Canada is striking "Frosted Coins," although they list these as Proof-Like. Whatever they are listed as or called a true collector would call these Proofs. In fact due to the method used, Gem Proofs. The following are a summary of the authentic reports received, you be the judge.

Mrs. Biester, Supt. and the chief coiner of the Philadelphia Mint reports, 2,572 dies were used to strike 1,247,952 1957 proof sets. All the dies used are highly polished, many dies may be re-polished several times, but, under no circumstances is the polishing wheel allowed to touch the engraving. After a varying number of strikes the engraved portions of the die (lettering and effigy) takes on the same polished appearance as the field portion. This is caused by actual rubbing and movement of the metal when the forming blow is struck. Until such time as the engraving portions of the die become polished, we have a contrast or Frosted appearance. It then is apparent that ALL proofs struck during the early stages are Frosted and Gems. An example of this is the early pattern and proof coins. Since patterns are proofs and not struck for regular issue a small number are struck. A check of Adams-Woodin, pattern book lists these pieces from 1 to approximately 100. An inspection of these early low mintage proofs and patterns will show they are all Frosted or dull contrast to the highly polished field. Consequently, these were intended as such and should be called and listed as GEMS.

It is reasonable to assume there are many GEMS, in proof set unknowingly tucked away. It is seldom a set would contain more than (3) coins that are Frosted or GEMS. According to an inspection and inquiry the 1¢ and 5¢ piece is the most difficult to find, due to the metal contrasting color and would be rare. A close inspection of the sets on the cover page will show a definite difference. A real challenge to the collector would be to acquire a complete set of these Frosted Gems.

The method would be to buy these or check their stock, if found, break the set up and use these singles to complete a set. The lower the mintage the tougher it will get to complete a set. If these GEM sets prove popular with the collector, the 1936 set rare as it is, would be valued several times more than they are today.

A. P. Master, the Director of the Royal Mint of Ottawa, Canada, forwarded his reply. The following is the more direct contents of his letter.

The current silver coins are composed of 80% fine silver and 20% pure copper. The bronze cent is composed of 98% copper 1 1/2% zinc and 1/2% tin. The dies are completely Chromium Plated and polished. The writer assumes the engraved portions are not polished, as this is the part that would give the dull frost contrast. A similar method as used by the U.S. mint. The reason for this dullness is to obtain a contrast which gives a much nicer appearance. The writer feels the Chromium plating method used allows the contrast appearance to be effective many times longer on these Proof-Like Sets, before the engraved part becomes polished as the field, due to the platings durability.

The coins issued for the collectors are of the regular issue, the only difference being, when they leave the presses they are not allowed to contact each other. So here we have a number of different title names and methods, but the principles and intentions are the same. Proof-Like, Frosted Heads and Gems to the writer they are all the same when they come out of the wash.

Since the 1957 issue was the greatest, the chances of finding a Gem or Frosted coin in your set is very good. A tabulation of the dies used indicates a number of Gems were struck at each changing of the dies. The future holds the following possibilities, a greater interest in Proofs, a standard listing of GEMS and revised values. The readers comments, opinions and collaboration on this subject is welcomed. Write to the editor of the "Flying Eagle".

From Your Editor's Desk —

COIN PHOTOS—We have at times received coins from our readers with interesting oddities to note. With the suggestion of publishing if it warrants. We cannot undertake the responsibility and expense of photographing these items. We will be happy to go the expense of having the engraving done if the item is of interest to our readers and a clear gloss photo is submitted.

MINT DIRECTOR—Word has been received from Mrs. Biester, the Supt. Director of the Phila. Mint, acknowledging our comments of her appearance on the TV show "What's My Line". She also promised a photo for publication in the near future. Your writer is hoping to see a coin collector or dealer try to stump the experts. It should prove interesting and fun.

RAY JANDA, prominent member of HANA Coin Club, has received copy rights and ownership of the U.S. coin check list, previously listed as Mac's. It is a pocket size booklet with illustrations and lists (7) grades from good to proof. It contains 88 pages and sells for $1.00.

COTY COIN CLUB, of Canada offers collectors proof-like mint sets of the current year in album page. Coty album, periodic news bulletin and membership all for only $5. These sets will be sent to the members each year at the cost price. The set consists of $1., 50c, 25c, 10c, 5c, 1c, for information check the Coty ad in these pages.

SPECIAL RATES—We have received word from club officials and subscribers about our special rates we had offered some time ago. I would like to say this was an introductory offer so the many subscribers may get acquainted with our magazine during the time of subscription ONLY. Our offer is still good to Coin Clubs who haven't been able to take this opportunity. This offer is good only during the initial year, thereafter it's the regular rate. If your club hasn't heard of this offer, mention it at the next meeting and get your subscription at $1.50 and save 50c. Have a club official or representative send in your Bonus introductory subscription, receive a free gift, and enjoy 12 issues of interesting reading, with many bargain sales.

QUESTION-ANSWER COLUMN—Our November issue will contain for questions or inquiry a column of numismatics. C. Lynn Glaser, numismatist, will write and handle this column and also other short items of interest for our readers. Only questions of the most general interest will be published. If you have a problem or question on numismatics send your inquiries to C. Lynn Glaser, of 240 E. 13th Ave., Conshohocken, Pa. Please do not send items for this column to our office, only to the above address. If this proves popular with our readers we will feature this column monthly. Mr. Glaser, is a student and Professional numismatist.

BOOK REVIEW—Our office has received the 2nd edition of "A Guide to Coin Investments" By Dr. Bilinski. This book contains 163 pages of informative and interesting reading material. It lists a host of important statistics, trends, values, comments and surveys. We recommend this book for its general scope of every subject of the coin hobby. We commend the writer for his efforts and work in compiling this book with its vital information. A copy can be purchased by sending $3.00 plus 25c postage to: Dr. Bilinski, Box 6254, San Diego 6, California.

NEW ADVERTISERS—A reader from Lewiston, N. Y. writes he believes there are many small collectors who wish to advertise their material but are unaware of the facts. Our office would be happy to help with any ads. The following should be of help. A dealer is not required to be licensed, except where a state or city tax is exercised the dealer should register. Anyone can buy, sell or trade his or her coins or currency. Copy should be typed and double spaced. Material for sale should be reasonably priced and graded. At least a 3-day refund privilege is required on all sales. A booklet on postal regulations can be obtained free at any post office. Any other information can be had by writing our office. Please enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope.

HANDY PRICE REFERENCE AD—Bob Jameson, dealer of Wooster, Ohio has included 3 pages of ads in this issue of Singles, Rolls and Mint Sets. These ads would be ideal for future price references.

HISTORICAL INTEREST TO THE TOKEN COLLECTOR

Arthur Spidel of Box 457, Brewster, Ohio, came about a huge can full of early money and tokens left to him by his family. Among them were the enclosed tokens of Abraham Lincoln and Hannibal Hamlin dated 1860. These rare items are called vignettes or daguerreotype. They are brass frames about 1/8" thick and about the size of a quarter. Although Lincoln was always associated with a beard this rare photo shows him clean shaved. No doubt this was Lincoln in his younger days as a candidate for the Presidency. These tokens were political items. Hannibal Hamlin, born in Paris, Maine, was an American statesman and senator. He was the vice president under Lincoln. Collectors or dealers with added information and value of these tokens should write our office or to Mr. Spidel.

NEWARK COIN CONVENTION OF NEW JERSEY NEWARK COIN CLUB—HOST

The best Convention for sales in years, was the opinion of most of the dealers. The auction brought record prices in some types of obsolete currency and there was standing room only for an overflow crowd. On hand were 22 dealer tables. It was estimated that 1500 people saw the exhibits. The Convention at the Y.M.-Y.W.C.A. was from 9:00 A.M. to 10:00 P.M. Sept. 13, and the 40 by 60 foot Bourse Room and the two exhibit rooms were crowded from opening to closing. This was one of the best advertised conventions in the Metropolitan area, with many New Jersey Newspapers and radio participating. City Hall had a banner up for a week proclaiming this event and the Art Museum put coins on display such as the rare 1804 Silver Dollar that had not seen the light of day in the laps of 30 years.

Many organizations were well represented here as the registration cards indicated. M.A.N.A. was fully in attendance with Mr. Jones, Solomon, and Kaptik. Many prominent numismatists commented on the turnout and they came early and stayed late in the modern new "Y" with its comfortable lounge and reasonably priced cafeteria, plenty of ice water drinking fountains and modern rest rooms added to the comfort of those renewing old acquaintances. Much credit goes to the Committees who gave their efforts to this affair as I observed it first hand. There were ten first prizes for the exhibits, of engraved large bronze medals, for ten categories and it was difficult to decide who had the best among such a superior display of artistic, rare and beautiful objects. If there is another affair next year it will be subscribed several times over.

20th ANNIVERSARY PENN-OHIO COIN CLUBS CONVENTION

The Pittsburgh, Western Pennsylvania and Kiski-Valley Numismatic Societies will host the Penn-Ohio Coin Clubs' 20th Anniversary Convention to be held at the Webster Hall Hotel, Pittsburgh, Pa., On November 14-15-16, 1958.

Highlights of the gala event will include a two-session auction catalogued and conducted by Sam J. Kabealo, founder of the Penn-Ohio Coin Clubs — a Million-dollar exhibit of U.S. and Foreign Rarities, plus a priceless Jade Exhibit from the Howard D. Gibbs collection; one of the world's finest Large Cent Collections, Tokens, Transportation Token, Mint Errors, Rare Proofs, etc. Also included on the convention program is a grand banquet, Saturday evening, Nov. 15th at which Mr. J. E. Charlton, internationally known numismatist and author will be the principal speaker. The exceedingly rare 1913 Nickel will also be on display through the courtesy of Mr. J. V. McDermott of Milwaukee, Wis.

A past-presidents Jamboree is planned and many social activities for the ladies and guests. The general public is most welcome to pay us a visit and to view the exhibits. Show open 9 A.M. Friday to 3 P.M. Sunday.

Make your reservations early for this outstanding "numismatic event of the year." Bring along a friend, your wife and family—all roads lead to the "Golden Triangle" for the 20th Anniversary of Penn-Ohio.

Paper Money Round-Up

The "Dollar" that Couldn't Exist

By Harold Don Allen

The United States dollar equals the Liberian dollar, the Liberian equals the Cuban peso, the Cuban equals the Dominican Republic peso . . .

At least, to what mathematicians term a "first approximation", the above relationship holds true. Treaty, tradition, international manipulation and the skillful juggling of government banks maintain virtual parity between a number of such currency units - approximate equality to Uncle Sam's greenback dollar we know so well.

But every paper money collector who searches elusive currencies of Liberia and Panama knows that the U.S. currency link is even closer: the Liberian dollar literally is the United States dollar, and Liberian paper currency as such has not existed in many years. So it has been in Panama, where early pesos were succeeded by a international treaty by which Panamanian coins were struck as fractions of a Balboa (a dollar-size silver coin), but U.S. paper money became the law of the land.

In short, the attractive and elusive central bank currency which we are privileged to illustrate simply never had any right to exist.

Its life was a short but merry one, though it should be recorded to its credit that it remains redeemable (for a United States dollar) to the present day. (For this reason, illustration is only with the special permission of the Chief, U.S. Secret Service, Treasury Department. Further reproduction, in whole or in part, is strictly prohibited.)

The issue took place by special decree late in 1941, by an unfriendly government desiring to suppress the United States dollar. Shortly thereafter, a coup removed the government, the issue was rapidly withdrawn, and U.S. currency circulation restored.

This was shortly before the entry of the United States into World War II, a time when what some considered a pro-Nazi administration, so close to the vital canal, proved a cause of major concern.

The note is a One Balboa, issued by "El Banco Central de Emision de la Republica de Panama" as "Serie de 1941". Attractively engraved in black, supported by green and red, it is the work of Hamilton Bank Note Company, New York, one of the few examples of the craft of this short-lived firm, which also produced Nicaraguan currency.

The reverse, in green, displays the Panamanian arms.

Walter Loeb, M.D., Seattle paper money specialist, reports that the note issue was entirely backed by United States currency in government vaults.

He describes a "bloodless revolution" while the hierarchy of the Arias government were weekend-ing in Cuba.

The issue was largely destroyed unissued. Bills in circulation, in 1, 5, 10 and 20 Balboa denominations, were hastily withdrawn and, says a letter from the Panamanian government in the files of the Chase-Manhattan Bank money museum, "cremated". Only $6,000 face value remains unredeemed.

THE 1804 DOLLAR

By C. Lynn Glaser

The fact that only seven out of the 19,570 dollars struck in 1804 remain has constantly baffled coin collectors. There are two major schools of thought on the subject, the first and most popular is that the entire mintage of 1804 silver dollars accidentally replaced a shipment of Spanish dollars, in payment for Louisiana, but the ship that was carrying them was sunk, the second theory is that the entire mintage was melted down to halt speculation.

There is a third theory however it is held by only a small minority of numismatist that all known silver dollars were struck between 1836 and 1840. Here are the reasons for my personal belief in this theory.

1. A document recently came to my attention stating that 19,570 dollars were struck late in 1803 probably from 1803 dies. Under the old system of filing directors reports these would probably be listed under 1804.

2. The first 1804 dollar appeared in 1843. It seems odd that this coin would be lying around the mint since 1804, especially considering the fact the mint building was moved in 1833. The dies also came to light about 1860 and were reported to be in good condition, they would be if they had only struck a few patterns.

3. The first 1804 silver dollar was a proof. Proofs didn't become generally known until 1817, the few existing before were mostly struck for use as patterns.

4. Even though the 1804 silver dollar is a bust type the coinage techniques resemble those of 1840 more closely.

Thanks to William J. Freas for his collaboration on the subject.

4 RARE PENNIES GONE WITH THE WIND

Dallas, Texas—Ben Henderson, a coin collector, came in possession of four rare pennies. He rubbed them with olive oil and placed them on a window sill so the sun would turn them to a natural color.

A few minutes later he saw pigeons flying away with them. His supposition is the pigeons thought it was corn . . $40 worth.

JUST ONE MAN'S OPINION

The Carson City Dollars are the most underpriced series of all coins minted.

All one has to do is check the number minted of each year and you will see that there will never be enough to supply our five (5) million or more (estimate) collectors.

Take the 1885 with only 228,000 minted. This would be one for about every 21 collectors.

Second comes the 1881 with only 296,000 and so on.

I have a few sets of the 1880 through 1885 complete in Strictly Brilliant Uncirculated.

For set of six (6) $21.95

Below are my prices for single coins . . . all Brilliant Uncirculated.

1878-CC Proof Surface	$ 6.00	1885-CC Brill. Unc.	$ 5.00

1884-CC Brill. Unc.	4.00

Please keep in mind that I guarantee every dollar I sell to be Strictly Brilliant Uncirculated.

Money back guarantee plus return postage if not pleased.

My second offering for this month is, in my opinion, a small set with a future.

The War Time Silver Nickel consisting of 11 coins minted 1942 to 1945, (see Red Book.)

This set in Brilliant Uncirculated is beautiful and also underpriced in this booming coin market.

My price for the complete set is . . $4.50

The 1943-D is of course in this set and this is one that I compare in value to the 1942-D which is selling today for $4.50 each.

Please add 35¢ handling charge.

Penna. collectors must include 3% State tax.

Prices subject to change and prior sale.

It Could Happen To Any Collector!

By Earl A. McBrayer

Last week a sober and industrious member of my community knocked on the door late at night. He was barely into the living room before he excitedly asked, "How much will you pay for a 1913 Liberty nickel?"

Patiently I explained to him that there just wasn't any such 'animal' outside of a collection. There were only six and all are new held in the collection of several collectors.

He insisted that this was the real thing. He had seen it and the owner wanted to sell it. It was received in change down in the Kentucky hills in 1942 and the owner had held it for sixteen years until it had increased to its present value. "Either put up or shut up! How much will you pay," he exclaimed.

So finally I decided that there wasn't much else I could do if I wanted to get to bed that night and I told him doubtless it would be worth at least $5,000.00 to $10,000.00 if genuine. (I found out later he offered the owner $3,000.00 after talking to me.) He agreed to make an appointment for me to see the nickel after the owner got it out of the vault again.

As a matter of fact it began to tickle my curiosity bone as to how such a convincing job of alteration could be done on another date Liberty Head nickel. The owner had turned down a $500.00 cash offer for the coin I learned from my neighbor.

During the long ride out to the home where the nickel lay I pondered the words I would use to ease the pain of the proud possessor who planned to pay off his home with the proceeds of the sale. It was better he should get acquainted with the facts, I figured, than sell the coin to someone else and perhaps be sued for fraud at a later date!

I'll spare the details after arrival except to say that the coin was, of course, a clever 1910 with the '0' altered into a '3'. (They also make them with 1903 nickels, you will find!)

But that isn't the end of the story. The owner's wife brought out a little bag of Indian cents and I looked through them quickly, meanwhile consoling the occupants of the house as best I could on their lack of fortune. There were eighty-five Ind. cents and they were the usual 1890-1908 common Indians until I reached the 18th coin. I almost fell off the chair! It was a 1909-S Indian cent! Condition: nearly fine with edge bruises, and perfectly good for most any collector's album. It was hardly compensation for the deflated balloon but it provided a real "O. Homy ending" for a very unusual morning. (Know anyone who can use my duplicate 1909-S Ind. cent?)

CLUB NEWS

NEW COIN-STAMP CLUB

The Garfield Coin & Stamp Club, 100 Somerset Street, Garfield, N. J. The meeting was held in the rear of the Somerset Hotel.

12 new members were present that started the club and dues were paid for one year in advance. The club meets on the second Friday of each month at 8 P.M. Our next meeting will take place October 10, 1958 at the Somerset Hotel in Garfield. All coin and stamp collectors are welcome to attend. Mr. Charles Lotpeich was elected president, Mr. David Rubin, Sec'y. These positions will be held until our next elections to take place in January 1959.

—David Rubin, Sec'y.
611 Midland Ave., Garfield, N. J.

DALWORTH CLUB'S #11

October 17-19 is the date for (3) days of buying, selling and trading. (50) bourse tables are expected to serve this greatest of DALWORTH bourses.

Some 800 are expected to attend this convention in Texas.

For information and reservations write R. E. Wallace, 311 Main St., Fort Worth 2, Texas.

EVANSVILLE, INDIANA SPONSORS CONVENTION

The Evansville Coin Club will hold its first annual convention December 6th and 7th in the Vendome Hotel at Evansville, Ind. President Charles Leich has named Robert Ware as General Chairman.

In addition to a limited dealer bourse, there will be a banquet on Saturday evening followed by an auction on Sunday afternoon. The competitive exhibits will be divided into three classes; Junior to age 13, Intermediate to age 21 and adult. First prize in each group will be a cup with a plaque for the 2nd place and a large trophy for the best of show. Each competitor will receive a Certificate of Merit for their entry. It is anticipated that the judge will be ANA President Admiral Dodson along with Harry Boosel and Leo Terry Presidents of the Central States and Indiana Societies. There will also be loan exhibits such as the 1913 Liberty Nickel, one of the finest rare gold collections known, and curious monies of the world and many others.

Details on any part of the meeting may be obtained by writing to Bob Ware at Newburgh, Indiana.

COLLECTORS' CLUB OF BOSTON, SEPT.

A motion was made and approved to appoint a committee of five to re-write the Constitution and By-Laws so as to include Junior members.

One of our Junior members,

Kenneth Rendell was called upon to give a brief summary of what he observed at the National A.-N. A. Convention at California. H's picture of the Convention was very interesting to all.

Andy Scott then introduced the Guest Speaker, Kenneth E. Bresset an authority in Numismatics, from Keene New Hamp. He gave a very interesting illustrated talk on "Mint Errors". This is a new and interesting field for collectors. He explained in a very interesting manner how to detect man made errors, not made at the mint. There are many of these on the market to-day.

When in Boston please visit with us, we meet the second Tuesday of each month in the Sheraton Plaza Hotel, Boston.

—Grace D. Lincoln, Sec'y.

NEWARK COIN CLUB

The 24th meeting of the Newark Coin Club was held Tuesday evening, September 9th, at the Y.M.-Y.W.C.A., with 40 in attendance. President James A. Brown presided. The minutes were read and approved. A nomination committee of four members were appointed, to propose officers for the coming year.

Mr. Robert Lockwood, industrial representative for Public Service Electric and Gas Co. gave a short talk on the need for water conservation in the state of New Jersey, including the building of two new dams.

The door prize of a 1957 Proof Set was won by that lucky man from Brooklyn, Henry J. Wolter. This makes three times in about six months.

Our October meeting will be our 2nd Anniversary, and plans are afoot to make it a memorable occasion. Cake, candies and all.

Refreshments were served after which an auction was held.

—Jack W. Nannery, Sec'y.

Highlights from the 270th meeting of Heart of America Numismatic Association, August meeting, Ray Lefman, President, presiding:

Attendance: 156 members

The evening's auction contained coins donated by members, with all proceeds going to the Club's treasury. The members are boosting club funds to help make the Central States Convention in Kansas City next April the best ever.

Entertainment included a talk by Mr. Phillip Geisel, Club Treas. about his recent European tour. He showed some beautiful examples of foreign currency that he acquired.

It was decided that the Club will meet twice monthly. On the first Monday of each month, a full evening of coin auctioning will take place at the Kansas City Museum facilities. On the third Monday of the month, the regular business meeting will take place, at which time permanent bourse tables will be operating.

VIRGINIA PENINSULA COIN CLUB

The Fifth Anniversary dinner meeting was attended by sixty-four collectors and members of their families in Frank's Restaurant, Phoebus, Va., the 18th of August. President Donald Roberts presided. Steak and seafood dinners were enjoyed. Numerous donated door prizes were awarded. Colonel T. B. Gillette spoke on and exhibited "US Military Medals". Exhibits by members and three dealer bourse tables attracted considerable attention of all. "Souvenir Editions" of The Flying Eaglet and other numismatic publications were carried home by all present. Regular meetings resume in September at the YMCA in Newport News.

Mervyn H. Reynolds, Secy-Treas.

LETTERS

Dear Sir: It just dawned on me, I received my sample copy of the Flying Eaglet but haven't sent in my subscription. My apologies along with the enclosed $5. for (3) subs. I am collecting 4 yrs. now and find it very enjoyable and relaxing.

Winston Churchill, Toledo, Oh'o
Dear Sir: Enclosed is $2. for another renewal of my subs. of F.E. I find it very interesting and it improved wonderfully since the first issue. I hope it doubles its size in the near future. I have sold 75% of my collection, so I can have some good from it. I will be 85 yrs. old in Nov.

—Charles Tuxford,
Benton Harbor, Mich

Dear Sir: I notice the find of a brass 1942 cent in the August issue of the F.E. I have one of these coins for some time now but wasn't sure of it. Can you tell me how it happens and how many are there?

—Bennie Klefot, Dayton, Ohio
(Editors note) The U.S. mint strikes many thousands of coins for Foreign countries in different metal alloys, it is likely a brass planchet from one of these orders got mixed in with our regular issue. They are rare and few.

Dear Sir: I would like to tell you about my lucky finds: Lincoln Cents - TWO 1955 double shift both in X. Fine. I also acquired TWO 1957 Lib-I-erty type Lincoln Cent die break both also in X. Fine.

—Barbara Safonte
Ozone Park 17, N. Y.
Dennis Dublin of Armstrong, B.C., Canada has found two identical 1957 dimes with a dot under the date number 5 and dot along side of the 7.

Carl Ruotolo of Kearny, N. J. has acquired a roll of B.U. cents with 4 different die breaks all identical, blurred lettering, partially blanked wheat stalks, no initials VDB under shoulder and shoulder-arm cracks.

CONTEST WINNERS

The closest guess to the amount of proof sets struck during August was 81,872 submitted by R. J. Marks, of Washington, D. C. The actual number struck was 73,677 the guess was off by 7,000 sets but was good enough to win a 1958 proof set.

The best find of the month was submitted by Paul W. Preston, of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. While visiting his mother-in-law in Denver, Colo. She showed him her savings of a WASH TUB half full of pennies she saved in the past 25 yrs. She offered him to look them over and take what he wanted. He spent 4 days looking them over and came up with (7) 1909-S, (2) 1914-D, (3) 1922-P and (16) 1931-S.

If you would like to try for a prize send in your guess or best most interesting find of the month to the editor. No strings attached, this is FREE to our readers. Send a card or mention your guess or find with your correspondence to our office. Will you! be our next months winner of a 1958 proof set.

1943 COPPER CENT WITH-DRAWN

The "Writ of Replevin" was used to recover the much publicized cent at the ANA convention in California. The story was told, how someone asked to inspect this cent, when handed the coin, the person returned the "Writ" instead of the cent. This is a legal method of recovering an item. The owner evidently changed his mind in having this copper cent auctioned off.

It was reported he refused $25,000 for it prior to submitting it for the auction. This episode will undoubtedly add to the questions of the doubting Toms. A rumor has it that a big food company bought it as a publicity stunt to insert it in a breakfast food box.

BROOKLYN COIN CLUB

The 303rd meeting of the Brooklyn Coin Club was held on September 3rd at the Hotel Grenada with 36 in attendance. President Frank W. Porcaro presided. A nominating committee will be selected at the next meeting, of three members in good standing, to propose officers for the coming year. The Chairman of the door prize committee, Harold Schornstein told of several door prize donations, one his own, another by Stack's and several pledges for future gifts. Discussion was now on the advisability of holding auctions more often with changing of the rules for entry. "The Quantum Theory" was partially explained by a scientific member and it apparently runs at right angles to time and space.

Harold Schornstein exhibited the first prize for paper money award won at the A.N.A. Convention in Los Angeles in Aug. There was some trading-Exhibits.

—James A. Brown, Rec. Sec'y.

THE "ARNPRIOR" DOLLAR

Arnprior, is a small town in Ontario, Canada. During the year 1955, 274,810 silver dollars were struck for regular issue. But a manufacturing company in this town decided to give their employees a Christmas bonus in silver dollars. The Royal Mint, although disposed of its regular run of issue for the year, they obliged this company's request for some 2,000, 1955 silver dollars. During the process of striking these dollars the die became partially filled at the (point of arrow) of the above photo. This causing the water lines to appear as 1 1/2) instead of (3) as in the regular issue. Thus a new variety for the collector to save. Since this was a small issue that was put into circulation, they are difficult to come by. They are proving popular with the collector and the demand is raising the value to $30, upward. Thus the "Arnprior" dollar was born.

Luther Sheldon, II, a dealer from Detroit, Michigan, while visiting N.Y.C., was at the New York Airport waiting for his flight back to Chicago. He phoned our office and we spoke of the coin hobby. Then Luther, mentioned he picked up an "Arnprior" dollar recently while up in Canada. The price only $15. He predicts this coin to catch up or surpass the rare 1948 silver dollar which is currently valued at about $70, of which some 8,000 were struck.
